These vacancies will be filled at the respective colleges based on the lists forwarded in accordance with the Guidelines issued by the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations.

Allotment List for Stray Vacancy Filling Allotment

An Allotment had been done based on the options registered by the eligible candidates, the vacancies available, and the guidelines published by the CEE, excluding

- Candidates allotted a seat in the Mop up phase irrespective of their joining status.

- Candidates admitted to the course through phases up to the second round of Centralised Allotments.
- The ineligible candidates, published by the AACCC.

But as no valid options had been registered by the eligible candidates against the existing vacancies, no Allotment List exists for the stray vacancy filling phase.

TWO LISTS HAVE BEEN ISSUED FOR STRAY VACANCY FILLING ROUND OF ADMISSION

Priority List 1: Probable candidates List:

In the absence of Allotment List for the stray vacancy Filling,
Priority List 1: Probable candidates List- including candidates who have registered valid options in the Mop up Counselling can be considered for allotment at the institutional level. List excludes

- Candidates allotted a seat in the Mop up phase irrespective of their joining status/allotted seat.
- Candidates admitted to the course through phases up to the second round of Centralised Allotments.
- Ineligible candidates, published by the AACCC.

Priority List 2 : Eligible candidates List - If vacancies exist even after the Priority List 1: Probable candidates List has been considered, in accordance with the guidelines and instructions, candidates included in the Priority List 2 : Eligible candidates List and satisfying the eligibility conditions essential for admission to the course may be considered for admission to the remaining stray vacancies.

Reporting/Joining Period : Candidates eligible for admission and included in the Priority List 1: Probable candidates List and Priority List 2 : Eligible candidates List shall report before the concerned college authority from 25.03.2023 to 28.03.2023, 2.00 PM. All documents including the TC in original, and the complete fee (if applicable) should be submitted/paid to the college before the end of the reporting period.

Guidelines for Allotment (to be followed by the Colleges and candidates)

1. Stray vacancy filling should not be on a First-Come, First-Served basis.

2. Eligible candidates can report to the concerned college authority with all the required documents in original, including the Transfer Certificate. All the documents listed in the prospectus, as the documents to be submitted to the college authority for taking admission, should be submitted to the concerned college authority before the end of the reporting period.

3. No actual seat allocation should be done before the end of the reporting period, and the admission finalization should be done in rank order only, from the candidates who reported before the college authority, satisfying the conditions in the previous Para. Admission finalization should be done only after the reporting period ends. Fees collected from candidates who are not finally admitted should be promptly refunded.

4. Admission to any category seat (if any) should be limited to candidates from the respective categories. However, in the event that not enough candidates report during the reporting period, the college authority can convert the category seat to another eligible category as per the prospectus condition. That is, for all the eligible candidates, the reporting period will end at 2.00 PM on 28.03.2023 irrespective of category conversion or not.

5. College authorities should verify the AIAPGET rank details, the State Merit List, and the category status of the candidates using the CEE Data Sheet to be brought by the candidates. Academic eligibility should also be verified by the college authority.

6. The colleges should forward the list of Admitted candidates to the CEE on 28.03.2023, 3:00 P.M. The list should include the candidate's roll number, rank, admitted category, name, and reporting time. The details of all reporting candidates and rejected candidates (mentioning the reason) should also be forwarded to the CEE.

7. All the college authorities should update the details of stray vacancy admission through OAMS before 28.03.2023, 5:00 P.M

Candidates are requested to check the Priority Lists, Guidelines and Vacancy details published on the website. Candidates included in the Lists, may contact the college authorities concerned and participate in the allotment process within the stipulated time.
