Conditions

1. Those candidates who have not registered in Round I shall have to pay registration fee for fresh registration.
2. Those who have got allotment in round 2 and do not take admission shall have to pay registration fee for fresh registration in third round.
3. Those who have vacated the seat after 27.11.2023, 4.00 PM will not be eligible for further round allotments.
4. The options registered in the previous rounds will not be considered for allotment in the 3rd round. Hence, candidates shall have to register option afresh if they wish to participate in the third round allotment.
5. If any candidates does not join seat allotted in round 3, he/she may exit with forfeiture of registration fee and cannot participate in further rounds of allotment.
6. If a candidate freshly register in round 3 and is not allotted any seat, he/she is eligible to participate in stray vacancy round.
7. Candidates getting allotment in round 3 shall not have any claim on earlier rounds allotted seat.

8. Those candidates who are included in the list of candidates shared by the AACCC will not be considered for the third round allotment.

Those candidates who are blocked from further participation in state quota allotments on account of being admitted in AIQ seat will not be considered in this and subsequent phases of the state admission procedures and candidates allotted a seat in the third round of the All India Counseling will also be ineligible to participate in this and subsequent phases of the state allotments.

Option registration is a mandatory step of this phase irrespective of whether options were registered or not registered in the previous phases. The options have to be registered through the Online Option Registration facility accessible after logging on to the Candidate portal on the website, www.cee.kerala.gov.in by giving their Application Number & Password through the link “PG Ayurveda-2023 Candidate Portal”. Then by clicking the Menu ‘Option Registration’, candidates can register their options online within the stipulated time.

Service Quota Candidates : - The rank list of Service Quota Candidates has been published in the website www.cee.kerala.gov.in. Candidates included in the Service Quota Rank List can register their options for admission to PG Ayurveda Course 2023 in this phase.

During this phase, candidates are advised to choose and order their options according to the following conditions.

1. The options registered by the candidates for this phase would be the basis for the subsequent Stray Vacancy Filling Allotments, if any. In that case, there will not be separate option registration or confirmation step prior to those allotments and the candidates will not be considered for Stray Vacancy Filling Allotment to those courses and colleges not chosen by them for the Third Round Allotment. The options registered in this Third phase will be considered for Stray vacancy seat filling also. So, failure to register options in this phase will make the candidate ineligible to get an allotment not only in this phase but in subsequent Stray Vacancy Filling Allotments also.

2. Any candidate who is allotted a seat in this phase or any subsequent Stray Vacancy Filling Allotments, irrespective of whether he/she joins or not joins the allotted seat, will not be further considered in the subsequent allotments.

3. Candidates who have already been admitted in PG Ayurveda Course, will lose the existing admission if they get an allotment in this phase. Surrender of seats after Third Round will not be permitted.

4. If any candidate already holding a seat allotted in a previous phase wants to quit that seat, the candidate must get TC from the college concerned before 27.11.2023, 4 PM and get it reported by the college to the CEE on the same day.

5. Candidates can register options (as per the condition mentioned in the prospectus) to any of the courses existing in any of the colleges which the candidate wishes to join irrespective of the existing vacancy position as the seats being vacated as part of the allotment process when candidates already holding a seat allotted to them in a previous phase are re-allotted to a higher option, will also be filled as part of the same allotment process and while registering options. Candidates are advised to take into account probable vacancies that may arise due to the applicable category conversion rules also.

Registration Fees

Restriction has been implemented to candidates in order to avoid lapsing of seats and holding of AIQ seats and State quota seats thus blocking seats. A separate Registration fee has been implemented to all candidates, to register fresh options in Third round .

Those candidates who want to register options for Third Round in Government and Self Financing Ayurveda Colleges shall have to pay an amount of Rs.10000/- as registration fee to the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations. Candidates can participate in third round in both Government and Self Financing Ayurveda Colleges by paying the amount. For SC/ST/OE and other candidates eligible for fee concession registration fee of Rs.5000/- (Rs. Five Thousand Only) must be paid for registering options in Govt and in Self Financing Colleges.

The registration fee paid for Third round allotment will be adjusted in the fee of the course (if applicable) if the candidate gets an allotment. The registration fee of candidates, who do not get an allotment will be refunded.

The registration fee of those candidates who do not join the course if allotted through Third Round will be treated as penalty and will not be refunded. Candidates admitted to the course through previous phases of allotment by the CEE shall be liable for penalty equivalent to the registration fee, if they vacate seats or obtain T.C after 27.11.2023.
