NOTIFICATION
ADMISSION TO PG AYURVEDA COURSES-2025
The list of students eligible for refund has been published
Facility for online verification of bank account details

The list of students eligible for refund in connection with admissions to the Postgraduate Ayurveda courses for the 2025-26 academic year has been published. Online facility to verify the correctness of the already submitted bank account details has been activated in the candidate portal. This facility is accessible to the candidates eligible for fee refund. Candidates can check their bank account details after logging into the PG Ayurveda 2025 – Candidate Portal provided in the website www.cee.kerala.gov.in, with their application number and password. After logging in, click on Submit Bank Account Details to access the bank account details page. If the account details shown are correct, click on the 'Confirm' button. A Printout facility is also provided. If there is any mistake in the bank account details then click the 'Edit' button and correct the mistakes, and save the corrected bank account details by providing the OTP received on the registered mobile number. After giving Confirmation, the slip containing the bank account details should be downloaded and kept for future reference. Refund, if any, will be given to the bank account provided while submitting the online application to the students who have not given confirmation. Online account details should be verified by 04.02.2026 by 5 PM. If the bank account details are not confirmed within the stipulated time limit, the already submitted bank account details (submitted in the online application) will be used for refund purpose.

Note: The bank account provided by the students should be in the name of the student or their parents. Students should ensure that the bank account details submitted online are correct. Refund will be credited to savings bank account only. Zero Balance Account, Basic Savings Account, Tiny Account and Popular Account are nonrefundable. No refund will be given to NRI account. The Commissioner of Entrance Examination shall not be responsible for any non-receipt of refund amount due to wrong information of bank account details.
